

Friends of Youth and Nature

Outdoor Education Scholarship Form

Friends of Youth and Nature is focused on expanding youth opportunities to learn about the outdoors, regardless of resources or circumstance. The FOYAN scholarship program is designed to assist students, schools or youth groups, and local providers to provide for these vital nature experiences.

Application process:

*Applications will be accepted on a first-come first-served basis, year-round, for individual students, schools and youth groups, and FOYAN providers in Delta, Mesa, and Montrose Counties for as long as funding is available. Applications for scholarships for programs or busing must be submitted at least two weeks prior to the event.

*Applications must be signed by a parent/guardian, school or youth group administrator, or provider representative

*Applications must be complete to be considered

*Applications must be submitted on-line or by email to: friendsofyouthandnature@gmail.com

Scholarship review and award process:

Applications will be reviewed by Friend of Youth and Nature board members upon receipt to determine eligibility. Please note that FOYAN funding is limited. One scholarship per entrant per calendar year will be accepted unless there are documented extenuating circumstances. FOYAN reserves the right to award less than the full amount requested. Applicants will be notified by email of award status.

Follow-up:

*Each award recipient is required to provide a follow-up report on how the scholarship funds were used, including a detailed narrative and one to three quality photos.

*Scholarship recipients are expected to assist with at least one FOYAN fundraising event per calendar year.

Privacy Policy:

All information submitted throughout the application process will remain confidential.

Indemnification:

In accepting a scholarship from Friends of Youth and Nature, the awardee understands that FOYAN donates this money to your cause in good faith and hold harmless FOYAN, FOYAN Board of Directors, and all FOYAN volunteers from all liability. The awardee accepts full responsibility for the outdoor experience to which this award is applied.
